THE ACADEMY.

A WEEKLY REVIEW OF LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART.

No. 451. [New Issue.] FRIDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1880. PRICE 3*d*. [Registered as a Newspaper.]

On January 15th, 1881, will be published, in super-royal folio, Part I. of

THE STATISTICAL ATLAS

OF

ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, AND IRELAND.

EDITED BY

G. PHILLIPS BEVAN, F.S.S., F.G.S., &c.

THE increasing attention that is now being given, both at home and abroad, to the study of Statistics warrants the belief of the Publishers that this attempt to illustrate the Statistics of Great Britain and Ireland by Maps will be appreciated by a large section of the scientific public, and will help to popularise and make more interesting one of the most important branches of knowledge—viz., the knowledge of our own country.

It is proposed to embody fifteen groups in all, each group including three Maps with small Plans of the Capitals, one for England, one for Scotland, and one for Ireland (on the same scale), to appear Monthly, as nearly as can be arranged. The whole Atlas will thus contain Forty-five Maps, or Fifteen Parts, each of which, however, can be had separately, price 7s. 6d. Each part will be accompanied by copious Letterpress bringing the Statistics of the group up to the latest date. The following subjects will be treated upon:—

I. Religious.
II. Educational.
III. Industrial.
IV. Criminal.
V. Poor Law and Pauperism.
VI. Marine (Commercial).
VII. Agricultural.
VIII. Military and Naval.
IX. Legal.
X. Railway and Telegraph.
XI. Sanitary.
XII. Geological and Mining.
XIII. Hydrographical (Water Supply).
XIV. Political.
XV. Population.

No efforts will be spared to make the information reliable, and as full as is compatible with clear delineation; and it is confidently hoped that the result will be an illustrated compendium of British Statistics which will form a unique work of standard reference.

THE SCIENTIFIC ROLL.

The main purposes of this Magazine are to facilitate research and to afford a medium by means of which Scientific enquirers may help each other.

The first object will be effected by broadly classifying the Sciences and grouping the various items in Specified Headings, so as to form a single series, so arranged that any person consulting the work will find collected in one place a Key to the literature of the subject comprised in each Heading.

The second object will be effected by the usual method of Questions and Answers.

Each Science which is considered will be subdivided into a number of Sections, and each such Section will have a Part of the Magazine devoted to it. This will enable persons who wish for information on a limited range of subjects to purchase the portion of the Magazine relating to it at a small cost.

The Magazine commences with Meteorology, knowledge of which is of great importance to many classes of people. The sailor and the farmer, the doctor and the invalid, the engineer and the emigrant, each and all have frequent reasons for enquiring as to what is known on many meteorological topics. It is from these, as well as from meteorologists, that the Scientific Roll seeks for support; and it is only by means of a large circulation that the plan which has been formed can be fully carried out.

The subject-matter of the earlier parts of the Scientific Roll will be as follows:—

Part I. GENERAL.
" II. AQUEOUS VAPOUR, including HUMIDITY, DEW-POINT, CLOUDS, FOGS, MISTS, &c.
" III. BAROMETRICAL CONDITION.
" IV. CARBONIC ACID and CHEMICAL RAYS.
" V. DUST HAZE.
Part VI. ELECTRICAL CONDITION, including THUNDERSTORMS.
" VII. HAILFALL.
" VIII. LUMINOUS RAYS.
" IX. MIASMA.
" X. OZONE.
" XI. RAINFALL.
" XII. SNOWFALL.
" XIII. TEMPERATURE.
" XIV. WIND.

Each of these parts will relate to the subject generally. The Parts following these will deal with the Climate of each country.

Number 1 was published on November 11, 1880, price 6d.

Number 2 will be ready on February 11, 1881, price 1s.

The Subscription price for Vol. I. (which will contain about 500 pages), is 7s. 6d., payable in advance to A. RAMSAY. For persons resident in the Colonies and Foreign Countries the Subscription price for the Volume is 10s.

New Edition, in 1 handsome vol., imp. 8vo, price £2 2s. net.

THE KERAMIC ART of JAPAN. By G. A. Audsley and J. L. BOWES. The success of the Large Edition, in 2 vols., folio, of this charming Work (the whole Edition of 1,000 Copies being now all but exhausted) has induced the Authors to bring out a New Edition, in a condensed and more compact form, the Plates, though necessarily reduced in size, being executed with the same beauty and high finish as in the previous one. The TEXT also, though less diffuse, is sufficiently copious, and fully describes all the Plates which illustrate the Work; but it contains ADDITIONS, bringing the Information up to Date.

The New Edition contains upwards of Thirty Chromo-lithographs, Autotypes, and Photo-lithographs, and a greater number than before of MARKS and MONOGRAMS will be included in the Text.

ECCLESIASTICAL EMBROIDERY.

An Entirely New Work, price £2 2s. net, most elegantly bound.

DRAWINGS of ANCIENT EMBROIDERY. Thirty Specimens of great Beauty and Interest selected by Mrs. MARY BARBER, and executed in the First Style of Chromo-lithography. Edited by W. BUTTERFIELD, Esq., Architect. A very limited number still unsubscribed for.

"This most beautiful series of illustrations of fine old embroidery was the work, we believe, of many years' careful study on the part of the lady author, who prepared it as her contribution to the work of Church restoration, at the suggestion of one of our greatest and universally respected architects, Mr. Butterfield. Mrs. Barber having died before her laborious work was published, Mr. Butterfield undertook, at her request, to superintend its issue; and a superb book it is, and most instructive to all who are interested in the wide subject of Church embroidery and the worthy production of Church vestments."—Literary Churchman.

THE "ELSTOW" BUNYAN.

A New Edition of the PILGRIM'S PROGRESS,

WITH

MEMOIR, BIBLIOGRAPHY, INDEX,

AND

NUMEROUS ORIGINAL ILLUSTRATIONS.

☞ The wood sides of this book are made of the Old Oak taken from Elstow Church previous to restoration.

From the Christmas "Bookseller."

"THE 'ELSTOW BUNYAN' (JOHN WALKER & Co.).—The new edition of Bunyan's 'Pilgrim' has several features of a character so remarkable as to be certain to attract general attention. A correct text has been secured by the careful collation of all the editions issued up to Bunyan's death, which amounted to eleven. Bunyan was a man of second thoughts; and, in consequence, the third edition of his 'Pilgrim' was, in point of fact, the first complete issue of his immortal dream. A memoir of the author has been specially prepared for this present edition, including the results of the latest criticisms and investigations, to which is appended an account of all the editions before mentioned, with a narrative of the successive changes and additions, either of text or engravings, which marked successive issues of the work among us. Bunyan lived to superintend them. Upwards of thirty original illustrations appear in the volume, designed and executed expressly for it—groups of the principal figures in the allegory happily reproducing the characteristics assigned them in it, and views of local interest around Elstow and Bedford. Among them is an effective panoramic representation of the village and its neighbourhood, as seen from the top of Elstow Church tower. These features, unique in themselves, are not all that recommend the 'Elstow Bunyan' to public notice. It can boast of material relics of the great English genius never before accessible to his numerous admirers. In the course of centuries the wooden beams and pews of Elstow Church had grown old and decayed to such a point as lately to make a thorough restoration necessary. The Publishers of the Elstow edition have secured as much of the old wood as had to be replaced by new construction, and portions of this have been applied to the binding of the new edition, in panels countersunk on either side. The oak boards are unpolished, and, set off by the contrast of French crimson or blue (at the purchaser's option), the effect is as rare as it is artistic. . . . We have said enough to indicate the merits of this truly memorial edition of John Bunyan.

"It claims a welcome from a much larger public than any one modern school of opinion. There is no man, and, above all, no Englishman, who can appreciate literary genius, united to sterling worth, but must hold in deserved respect and even affection the honest and gifted author of the 'Pilgrim's Progress.' Every such person ought to find a place on his table for the Elstow edition."
